HONORABLE WILLIAM H. PAULEY III, United States District Judge:

WHEREAS, the Government has articulated significant security concerns with respect to approximately eleven potential witnesses (the "Potential Witnesses") at the upcoming trial in the above-captioned case;

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that with respect to the Potential Witnesses, the Government will turn over Jencks Act materials, pursuant to Title 18, United States Code, Section 3500, after trial is concluded on the evening prior to the day when the witness in question is expected testify, with the following exceptions:

1. To the extent the Government is able to confirm that any of the Potential Witnesses is in a secure location in advance of the date of testimony, the Government will turn over Jencks Act materials with respect to that witness once it has received such confirmation; and

2. With respect to one of the Potential Witnesses ("W-1"), as to whom there are more Jencks Act materials than with respect to the other Potential Witnesses, the Government will provide Jencks Act materials at least twenty-four hours in advance of W-1's testimony.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that counsel for defendants will not be permitted to disclose the contents of the Potential Witnesses' Jencks Act material to any person until the morning when any such witness will testify, except with respect to W-1, or to the extent the Government represents that such witness is in a secure location.
